Make your own memory book with our rhyming verse and pictures you add yourself. Select your favorite Christmas cards, photos, wrapping paper, and notes and put them right on the pages of this beautiful book. A craft that will delight children and adults. Perfect for gatherings or quiet moments of personal reflection. Make one for yourself or create it as a gift. Use flaps, dimension, bows, texture, and pockets to preserve your most treasured memories. A unique alternative to a scrapbook, you can make one for a single year - or span the decades or centuries. The ultimate creative experience and you make it happen.

About the Author Sue Erickson Nielsen has a love for preserving the best parts of our lives as a way to keep moving forward. She has degrees in Music Education and Organizational Behavior and has worked in classrooms, businesses, and community theatre for decades. Her love for verse comes from her grandmother, who could recite hundred of poems until the day she died at age 93. Her father wrote a rhyming poem every year as a Christmas letter to friends and family which the children would illustrate by coloring at the kitchen table before stuffing into envelopes. She and her brothers wrote songs and ditties to commemorate family events and special occasions. She and her husband have collaborated on music and poems throughout the years. Working together, they are still creating Christmas memories with their five children and growing family in Sandy, Utah.
