For Britains growing band of model railway enthusiasts, a garden railway is the ultimate challenge. Richard Blizzards inspirational book which will appeal to experts and dreamers alike explains every stage of the process, including the construction of a kit engine plus rolling stock, the groundwork of laying a track outside, the landscaping to make it blend in well, and the building of structures to complete the realism.

About the AuthorRichard Blizzard is a writer and broadcaster who specializes in woodworking projects such as toys, furniture and garden schemes. Garden railways have always been a particular passion, ever since he built his first one aged 10.
