Charles del Todesco : Havana Legendary Cigars (Classics) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Havana Legendary Cigars (Classics):

5 of 6 people found the following review helpful. Save Your MoneyBy J. PalermoThis books is an exact duplicate and re-print of "The Havana Cigar - Cuba's Finest", published in 1997. There is no new information. In fact, the "Catalogue Raisonne", comprising 70 pages in the back of the book, is arrested in 1996 and is wildly outdated. The Habanos catalog of Cuban cigars in current production has changed enormously in the last 18 years. The information about the production of Cuban cigars is great and well produced. However, I feel duped believing that this would be an updated version of the previous publication by the same author. Save your money. You can purchase a fine used copy of "The Havana Cigar - Cuba's Finest" on this web site for pennies on the dollar, when compared to this deceptive "new" publication.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Four StarsBy Emre Can GunalpBook has great pictures and information but the catalogue behind is very old

Long relegated to boardrooms and back room card tables, the cigar has emerged to attain mass appeal while still holding on to its macho mystique. Amid the wide assortment of cigars available, the Havana stands head and shoulders above the rest. An ideal introduction for the neophyte as well as a superb guide for the aficionado, this book reviews the hallowed history of cigars in Cuba, and describes in detail the processes involved in creating them. Original photography reveals the beauty of the land and the hands and faces of the craftsmen and women behind each Havana cigar. Also included is an invaluable catalogue raisonne of Havana cigars.
