The projects are easy but the result is a chic urban/country style that will refresh your spirits. I love the use of gathered twigs, fairy lights and ribbon. These are designs that have not been done year after year and they are designs you can do by yourself or with your family. There are room decorations, wreaths, entertaining and food ideas and wrapping ideas. There is a stair garland using dried apples and checked ribbon and greens, beaded ornaments, decorative votives, a dove collage card and a table design bringing in a golden crown motif. No same old same old here. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Wonderful you will keep forever By Plundered treasure This is one of best kept homemade Christmas books! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. It's always nice to have a book on making Christmas decor By Janet L. Carter It's always nice to have a book on making Christmas decor. Do I have others? Yes. Did I need another? No. But I did find some new ideas.

Traditionally, Christmas decorations were always handmade using materials that could be found around the house and gleaned from nature. And it's still immensely satisfying to make your own. Children love to help, and making decorations and gifts is a wonderful way to fill the days of anticipation. You'll find most of the projects in this book require only the most basic skills, so everyone can have a go with guaranteed success! The joy of Christmas decorations is that they're not meant to be masterpieces. They're fun, they're quick, they can even be kitsch, but en masse, they're always beautiful. This book has 35 projects and ideas to get you started, all with full-colour step-by-step instructions and helpful techniques - use them, adapt them, develop your own. Because when it comes down to it, the best of home-made is that it's an expression of yourself.
