20 years ago, my mother bought me a copy when I was a new mom. I just bought a copy for my daughter who is running an arts and crafts summer camp. This book is useful, fun, nature and kid friendly.

I remembered having this book when my now adult daughter was a child. We loved doing the crafts in it together. I just ordered it for my nephew and his children. I'm glad it's still being published!! It really gives great ideas for using things in nature to do fun crafts.

I purchased this book years ago for my second son, now 38 years old. It was in the process of time lost. I spent many long years trying to replace it. It is wonderful learning fun for young-no matter what their age :o)

Over 100 creative projects to make from all manner of natural materials.
